

Important note for persons accompa- nying children

This exhibition includes works that are not suitable for children. There are explicit works with sexual content, verbal depictions of violence, or images and scenes that may be disturbing to children.

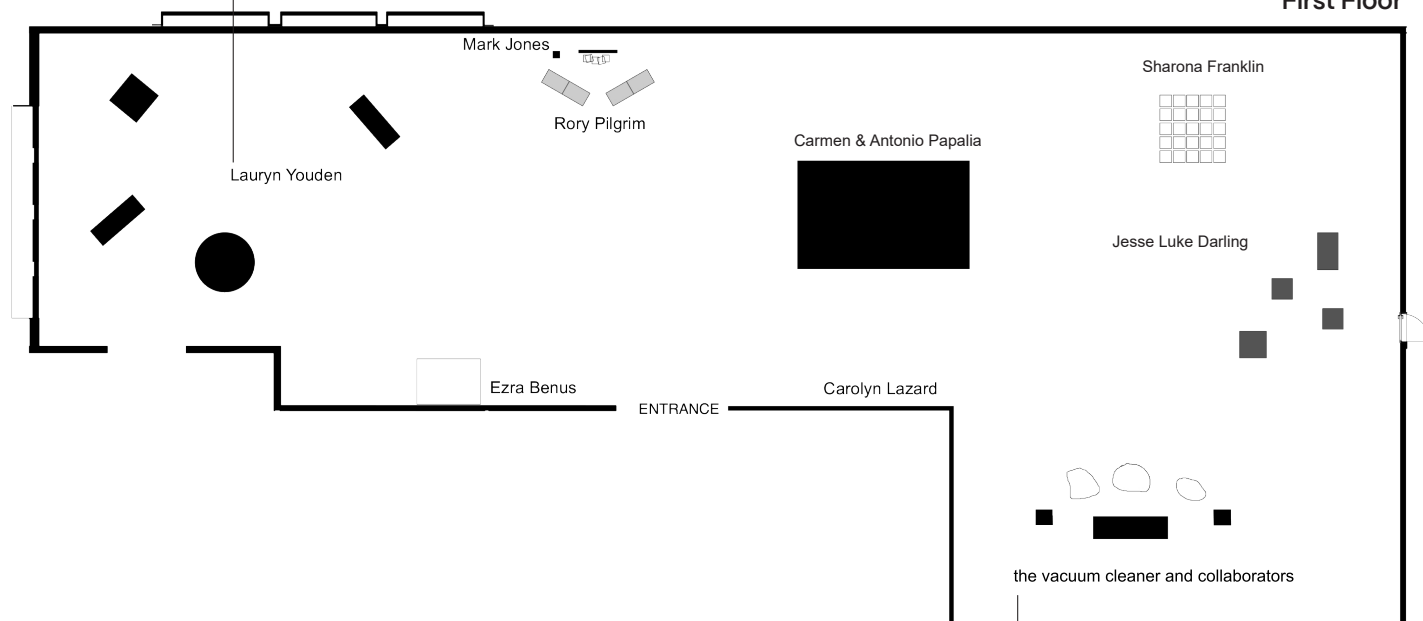

The audio track of the video (accessible via headphones) contains fictional descriptions of abusive behaviour in English.

The film installation contains explicit nudity and consensual sexual acts (aged 16 and above).

Lauryn Youden's room installation includes sharp knives and loose object, among other things, and must not be touched.

First Floor

For They Let In The Light includes material and direct experiences surrounding mental health, including suicidal feelings, self-harm, eating disorders, depression, anxiety, mental health hospitals and the use of the Mental Health Act, sexual violence and childhood neglect.
